

EXETER COLLEGE, OXFORD

Exonian Graduate Scholarships

Through the generosity of former students of Exeter College, the College seeks to elect up to one Exonian Graduate Scholar from among students who have been awarded a UKRI Studentship to study for a DPhil within a Department in the Social Sciences Division, at the University of Oxford.

Where a suitable candidate is identified, the Scholarship will be awarded in conjunction with a University of Oxford-awarded UKRI Studentship, and together these awards will fund all Course Fees, and a grant to cover living expenses for the DPhil degree.

The successful candidates will:

- be an applicant to the University of Oxford for admission to a graduate degree;
- have an offer of a place to study for a DPhil within the Social Sciences Division of the University;
- be awarded a UKRI Studentship by the University of Oxford;
- become a member of Exeter College, and commit to remaining at Exeter College for the duration of their course.

How to apply

There is no separate application process for this Scholarship; you simply need to apply for your graduate course by the relevant January deadline.

We will consider all eligible applicants to Oxford for this Scholarship, regardless of whether or not you state Exeter College as your preferred college on your graduate application form. If we offer you this Scholarship we will also offer you a place at Exeter College, which will take the place of any earlier college offer you may have.
