EXETER COLLEGE OXFORD

Banqueting Menus & Wine List
October 2021 - March 2022
Welcome to Exeter College

Exeter College has a proud history of catering at a very high level for functions of varying sizes. We regularly host dinner in our Dining Hall for the Said Business School, local and national organisations and many University departments. We have entertained the King and Queen of Spain, hosted the Chancellors court of Benefactors annual dinner and provided fine dining for over 200 events throughout the year. Our Head chef, Mark Willoughby, co-ordinates our team of chefs and is always available to discuss menus and planning. Our excellent food, helpful in-house serving staff, and 17th Century Dining rooms produce a package that will ensure an enjoyable and memorable evening for all.
At a Glance: Our Facilities

We offer two banqueting packages and both include the following:

- Dining room hire for up to 2.5 hours
- Crested printed menus and place cards
- Linen napkins
- Bottled sparkling and still mineral water
- Microphone/speaker system in the Dining Hall

How to Book

Our aim is to make the whole process from booking the dinner right through to paying the invoice, as straight forward and as easy as possible.

After browsing this brochure, please contact the Steward to arrange a tour of the college, check availability and discuss your needs:

conferences@exeter.ox.ac.uk
01865 279 653

If you are then ready to make a formal enquiry please submit the booking form issued to you by the Steward, who will then respond with a quotation based on your requirements. Once your booking is in place:

Three weeks prior to the event: submit your menu and wine choices

One week prior to the event: confirm final numbers and dietary requirements

One week after the event: an itemised invoice will be emailed to you for payment within three weeks.
Drinks Receptions & Canapés

Our drinks receptions provide the perfect opportunity for guests to meet and socialise before dinner.

During the summer months we can offer the Fellows’ garden. This walled garden has one of the finest views in Oxford and it is an oasis of beauty in the centre of the bustling city.

In the colder months, the Rector’s Drawing room, with its dramatic chandeliers and grand piano, is the perfect setting for canapés and champagne.

The Rector’s Dining Room provides a more intimate space for smaller groups.

Sparkling wine, champagne, prosecco and soft drinks are all charged by the bottle and you will only be charged for the number of bottles opened.

Dining Rooms

Dining Hall

The Dining Hall, dating back to 1618, provides an historic setting for banquets. The traditional, long wooden tables can seat a maximum of 154 guests (minimum 40 mid-week, 120 weekend).

In the winter months we can offer a log fire and in the month of December we have a real Christmas tree, tastefully decorated.

Rector’s Drawing room

A unique opportunity to dine in the Rectors own Drawing Room. The Rector is the head of the college and has given permission for this room to be used for private dinners and receptions. We can accommodate a maximum of 30 on three round tables or 22 on one rectangular table.

This room adjoins the Rector’s private walled garden which can be used for pre-dinner drinks in the summer months.

Old Bursary

Dating back to the 17th century, this dual-aspect room has views of the Fellows’ Garden and the Front Quadrangle.

Used daily for Fellows’ lunch, the Old Bursary can be used for private dinners up to 20.
We offer two banqueting packages and both include the following:

- Dining room hire for up to 2.5 hours
- Crested printed menus and place cards
- Linen napkins
- Bottled sparkling and still mineral water
- Microphone/speaker system in the Dining Hall

Please choose one starter, one main and one dessert course for your whole party. You are also welcome to choose an alternative starter and main course for vegetarians. Our chefs can adapt the menus to cater for all other dietary requests.

Wines

White

Sauvignon Blanc, Central Valley, Chile (Pato Torrente)  £20.10
A fresh zesty style of Sauvignon, between the Loire & New Zealand in style. ‘Pato Torrente’ is the torrent duck, a large handsome duck resident in the Andes: its picture adorns the label.

Chardonnay, Central Valley, Chile (Ladera Verde)  £20.40
This has seen a little oak, which gives it a spicy character, and has a slightly floral aroma from a small addition of Sauvignon Blanc.

Picpoul de Pinet ‘Cuvee Racine’ 2018  £28.10
‘Picpoul’ the name of the grape, means ‘the lip stinger’: the wine is a fresh savoury unoaked white from the Languedoc coast that is delicious with fish & shellfish.

Sauvignon de Touraine (Les Desmoiselles) 2016  £28.40
Light bodied & bone dry, with grassy Sauvignon notes.

Viognier, Vin de Pays d’Oc (Domaine Gayda) 2017  £28.75
Viognier, with its heady aroma of peaches, can be oily; this is made in a racy style and bottled with a screw cap to preserve freshness.

Pinot Grigio Riserva (Mezzacorona) 2019  £31.45
Pinot Grigio can be dull, watery and vaguely sweet, but this is dry and full of character, with a full body and distinctive fruitiness: it comes from Trentino, where the altitude and mountain air yield crisp white wines.

Chablis (Domaine D’Elise) 2017  £40.50
This is a classic Chablis made without oak influence: the wine is elegant, crisp and minerally.

Sancerre (Domaine Etienne Daulny) 2018  £40.75
Broad and intense, with flavours of citrus and green apple, fresh and very long.
Wines

Red

Malbec, Alto Pampas Del Sur 2017  £22.80
Textbook Argentinian Malbec: rich plummy fruit, spice and a velvety texture

Talento Monastrell Ecologico, Jumilla (Ego Bodegas) 2017  £23.80
High up in the mountains of Jumilla Mourvedre, known in Spain as Monastrell, thrives but here Mourvedre’s tough tannins are soft, the fruit recalls plush spicy blueberries: the grapes are organically grown.

Cotes due Rhone Rouge (Guigal) 2017  £27.50
Guigal is one of the top producers in the Rhone. His Cotes due Rhone is a mixture of Grenache and Syrah, spicy, full-bodied and beautifully balanced

Pionero Merlot Reserve 2017  £27.75
Merlot produces a soft spicy deep coloured wine in Chiles warm Maipo Valley: it has freshness to offset the ripe plummy fruit

Montepulciano d’Abruzzo (La Valentina) 2017  £28.75
La Valentina, one of the top producers of Montepulciano d’Abruzzo, has crafted a peppery dark-fruited wine with savoury undertones and firm tannins

Rioja Crianza (Promesa) 2015  £32.75
A traditionally made Rioja, that is aged for a year in American oak barrels: lightly cooked strawberries, leather and vanilla, with soft tannins

Sparkling Wine

Cava Brut Reserva NV (Rene Barbier)  £32.75
An elegant Cava, with peach and citrus fruit flavours and a fine mousse

Prosecco di Valdobbiadene Brut (Col de’Salici)  £36.10
Valdobbiadene is the best area for Prosecco. This is a dry fully sparkling style, with a lovely purity and clean aromas of flowers and citrus
Wines

Champagne

Champagne Pierre Vauldon £50.70
Pinot Noir grapes from Grand Cru vineyards make up 75% of the blend, bringing structure and depth of flavour. The remaining 25% is Chardonnay sourced from prime sites on the Cote des Blancs, contributing finesse and racy lemony character.

Champagne Picard Brut Reserve £55.60
Classic, elegant and biscuitty, from roughly equal parts of Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier and Chardonnay. As Winston Churchill said about Pol, his favourite Champagne, “My tastes are simple. I am easily satisfied with the best.”

Port & Sherry

NV Fine Ruby Port (Aged and Bottled by Fonesca Guimaeraens) £32.10
Textbook Argentinian Malbec: rich plummy fruit, spice and a velvety texture.

Warre LBV 2012 £37.70
Warre LBV is unlike most other ‘commercial’ late-bottled vintage ports in that the wine is bottled without fining or filtration and then aged in a bottle for a further four years, so that it has some of the character and intensity of a vintage port. The result is a wine that is full bodied, peppery and concentrated.

Sherry Oloroso Sanlucar de Barrameda (Barbadillo) £22.90

Soft Drinks

Orange Juice (per litre) £4.35
Elderflower Presse (per 750ml bottle) £6.50

Corkage Charges

White and Red Wine £18.55
Sparkling Wine £24.75
Champagne £30.90
Terms & Conditions

Normal evening meal times are between 7.30pm and 8.00pm. There is a £310 surcharge for meals starting later than 8.00pm.

Dinners in the Rectors Lodgings or the Old Bursary have a facility charge of £360.50.

Meals that exceed the allocated two and half hours will incur a surcharge of £300 for every half hour. This is to cover additional staffing and transport costs.

Whilst we make every effort to accommodate the wishes of banquet organisers and guests, we do request that you bear in mind that this is a working college. To this end we request that you abide by the college rules and inform your guests so they may also comply.

During the summer vacation renovation work may be carried out on some of the buildings within college. This can mean the presence of scaffolding or the possibility of changes in room availability.
What Our Clients Say

Excellent and very friendly conference team. Helped us a lot from the first call I made for booking till the end.”

Said Business School, February 2019

“On behalf of the Faculty Council...I would like to take this opportunity to thank you and all of the Exeter College staff for making us feel so welcome during our stay.

We really appreciate the support that you give us each year and the feedback from our 2019 delegates has been extremely positive.”

Faculty of Astrological Studies Summer School, August 2019

“The service – and the quality of the food – was first-rate. I had many compliments from the delegates.”

Festschrift Conference Dinner, September 2019

“Incredibly happy with the entire experience and the staff were SO great to be flexible with unpredictable weather, managing to keep our drinks reception outside despite a few min of a downpour that then cleared. Thank you!!”

Stevens-Wirth Wedding, August 2019

“The communication between us and the conference team was excellent and Philip was very understanding of our needs...All staff we met were extremely friendly which made the experience very enjoyable for the students.”

Fantastic Futures, May 2019

“All our guests were delighted with the quality of the experience (as was I). The whole environment is conducive to comfortable and civilised discussion!”

Oxford-Berlin Research Partnership, September 2019
