llege GI	DPR - Student Data ROPA - 28th November 2018
	Category of personal data	Source of the data	Why we process it	How long we keep it	Our lawful basis for processing	Details relating to lawful basis (where applicable)	Special category grounds	Special category- details of public interest etc (where appropriate)	Criminal conviction/criminal	Criminal conviction/criminal allegation grounds (furthe information)
	("collections"), University examinations, and College and University assessments, awards, scholarships and prizes	We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from the University of Oxford.		Permanently.	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest.	The College has a legitimate interest in processing this data so that it can deliver your course. Where we keep information for the purposes of the College archive, the College has a legitimate interest in maintaining a record of who has attended, the results, awards, prizes and scholarships that were awarded, so that it may provide references and verify attendance and as part of its historic archives.	N/A		Jallegation grounds and/or disabilities, and records of decisions we make taking that information into account.	We obtain this data from the University of Oxford. We obtain this data from you. We obtain this data from third parties, such as medical professionals that you ask to provide us with information.	teaching or we need to take account of any dietary		Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation.	The College has a legitimate interest in taking such information into account when it makes decisions that may affect your health, wellbeing or ability to participate. Processing is also necessary for compliance with equality law, and/or food safety law.	Substantial public interest under the UK Data Protection Act 2018.	Where the College processes special category data for these purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under the Equality Act 2010 and/or under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes.	N/A philosophical beliefs and/or sexuality processed for the	We obtain this data from the University of Oxford. We obtain this data from you.	For equality monitoring purposes.	Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms.	The College and its students have a legitimate interest in monitoring and promoting equality of opportunity.	Substantial public interest under the UK Data Protection Act 2018.	The processing is necessary for equality of opportunity or treatment purposes in accordance with the conditions and safeguards specified in the Data Protection Act 2018, with a view to promoting or maintaining such equality.	N/A including records of student self-assessment.	We obtain this data from you. We generate this data about you.	To help develop and guide you during your studies, our tutors monitor and assess your contributions in tutorials, including your written work, provide feedback and may ask you to self-assess your progress.	Permanently.	Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms.	The College has a legitimate interest in keeping such records to help develop and guide students during their studies.	N/A		N/A

Requests for assistance with academic matters, such as applications for special examination arrangements, equests for extensions to written work and submission of extenuating circumstances. Decision-making about such equests and records of actions taken.	you. We generate this data about you.	We process this information and make decisions about you when you ask us to, and in accordance with the College's policies relating to such requests.	For 6 years after the end of the academic year you cease to be a registered student.	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation.	such requests for assistance are considered pursuant to its procedures and in accordance with relevant legislation.	under the UK Data Protection Act 2018.	Where the College processes special category data for these purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under the Equality Act 2010. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes.
Records of student helpers/hosts at open days, consisting of the name and contact details of the helper/host, ecords of the hours worked and records of any payments or other benefits paid by the College.	you.	So that we have records of which students act as hosts on open days and can administer our open days and can make payments/provide other benefits to student hosts/helpers.	For 6 years after the end of the academic year you cease to be a registered student, to comply with HMRC requirements.	Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms.	The College and prospective students attending open days have a legitimate interest in current students acting as hosts, to give prospective students an insight into College life.
	We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from the University of Oxford.	In order to provide you with accommodation.	Records relating to accomodation tenancy or licence agreements will be retained for 6 years after the end of the academic year when your tenancy or licence ends.		The College and its residents have a legitimate interest in the College providing accommodation and operating it efficiently and safely.
Other records relating to your accommodation, for example your contact information, accommodation equests and preferences, booking forms for students and guests, records of any family members or dependants who occupy the accommodation, records of overnight guests, ost property records, rental of fridges, records of your accommodation inventory and of the condition/cleanliness of your accommodation throughout your occupancy.	you. We generate this data about you.	related services and so that we have records for safety purposes of who is in College premises.	These records will be retained for six months after your tenancy or licence ends.	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms.	interest in the College providing accommodation and operating it efficiently and safely.
Records of requests and bookings for rooms and facilities for events held by students/student societies, including ecords of any decisions the College makes pursuant to its abligation to take such steps as are reasonably practicable to ensure that freedom of speech within the law is secured for members, students and employees of the college and for visiting speakers.	you. We generate this data	As part of the system for providing College facilities to students and student societies.	Records will be retained for one year from the date on which a decision is made.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation.	such requests and bookings are considered pursuant to its procedures and in accordance with relevant legislation. The College has a legal obligation under the Education (No 2) Act 1986 to take such steps as are reasonably practicable to ensure that freedom of speech within the law is secured for members, students and employees of the College and for	under the UK Data Protection Act 2018.	Where the College processes special category data for these purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under the Education (No 2) Act 1986. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning freedom of speech within the law. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes.	The processing meets a condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	Where the College processes special category data for these purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under the Education (No 2) Act 1986. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning freedom of speech within the law. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes.

10 Financial information including your contact information	We obtain this data from In orde	der to provide your course, accommodation and	Records of outstanding payments will be retained until	Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you.
and details of invoicing and payment (including payment	you. associa	clated services.	they are paid in full.	or our contract with you.
information such as credit card or banking payment information) of "battels", namely: College fees,	We generate this data		Records relating to invoicing will be retained for six accommodation, deposits, food and drink, laundry, use of	about you.		years after the date on which the invoice was raised to sporting and other facilities as we have arranged with you			comply with HMRC requirements.
11 We also collect University Fees on behalf of the University	; We generate this data We col	collect fees due to the University on its behalf.	Fee invoices are kept for 6 years after the end of the	Processing is necessary for the	The University has a legitimate interest in collecting the University informs us what you owe so that we may d			financial year you cease to be a registered student, to		fees due to it.
this.			comply with HMRC requirements.	University.
	We obtain this data from the University of Oxford.			Dragossing is passesson for the nursesson
	the oniversity of Oxford.			Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms.
	1			1	1	I
	1			1	1	I
	1			1	1	I
	1			1	1	I
	1			1	1	I
	1			1	1	I
	1			I	1	I
	1			I	1	I
	1			1	1	I
	1			I	1	I
	1			1	1	I
12 Information that you submitted to UCAS and/or the	We obtain this data from So that	nat we have a record of our admissions decisions	Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems	Processing is necessary for performance	The College has a legitimate interest in being able to indefinetly, but deleted from live systems.
University, College or any third party when you applied to				of our contract with you.	provide references to its students and former study at Oxford, including your academic, employment		se. Also so that we have information and about			students.
history, predicted grades, language proficiency and	We obtain this data from your b	background and history if we are asked to		Processing is necessary for the purposes
personal statement; details of our admissions decision	you. provid-	ide a reference at a later date.		of our or someone else's legitimate about you. Details of any references, written work or	We generate this data			interests, except where overridden by research proposals you submit as part of your application				your data protection rights and
and any records we make of your application or interview				freedoms.
				rieedonis.
Communications between us about your admission,	We may also obtain this including feedback we provide.	data from schools or referees.
					I .
23 Dataile of any principal and all the transfer	We obtain this data form 5 th	but the Callege is a cofe and accommo	When coining consisting in the state of the	Deposition is appeared for a first	The College has a legitimes to the control of the college has a legitimes to the college has a legitime to the colle	Substantial sublinion	Wilson the Callege processes consistent and the first	The processing with	When the College groups and the facility of th
Details of any criminal records that you declare to us on							Where the College processes special category data for these		Where the College processes special category data for these
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina	you. enviro		declared or reported to us, we will retain this data	Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you.	checks to be carried out where its students are or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a	condition in Part 2 of	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a
	you. enviro			of our contract with you.	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data		condition in Part 2 of
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina	you. enviro		declared or reported to us, we will retain this data		checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. environ We generate this data		declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently.	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest,
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by	you. environ We generate this data		declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	we generate this data about you.		declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	we generate this data about you.	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations.
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations.	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations.
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations.	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function.
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function.	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function.
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function.	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
your application, or during your studies, or of any crimina incidents or allegations concerning you reported to us by anyone else. Details of any Disclosure and Barring Service	you. enviror We generate this data about you. We may obtain this data	ronment.	declared or reported to us, we will retain this data permanently. Where we require a Disclosure and Barring Service check to be carried out, we will retain the DBS certificate information for 6 months from the date the certificate is recieved and a skeleton record that the check was satisfactory or unsatisfactory passed will be kept on your College file for 6 years from the end of the academic year in which you cease to be a registered	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	checks to be carried out where its students are or may be engaged in regulated activity with children or	under the UK Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent

14				For 6 years after the end of the academic year when	Processing is necessary for performance		1
	associated information about your country of residence, the amount of your fees and funding information including your financial declaration, details of any guarantee from parents or others, any supporting information you provide about funding (e.g. loans, grants, sponsorship and/or self-funding resources, including copies of evidence you submit) and decisions that we make in light of that information.	We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	requirement to pay fees.	you cease to be a registered student. For records relating to US loans the retention period may exceed 6 years as the need to retain US loan records is governed by US Government data retention regulations.	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation.	you are required to pay, based on your country of residence. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to satisfy itself that students have appropriate arrangements are in place to meet the costs of their course and living expenses. The College has a legitimate interest in retaining information on US Loans according to US Government data retention regulations.
15	is made by you or about you to the College, including records of any investigation and / or decision that we take,	the University of Oxford. We obtain this data from	So that the College can maintain appropriate standards of conduct and behaviour for the benefit of all its members and visitors.	Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems.	Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms.	interest in the College being able to operate disciplinary, harassment and grievance procedures in	under the UK Data Protection Act 2018.	Where the College processes special category data for these purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under the Equality Act 2010. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes.	The processing meets a condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	Where the College processes special category data for these purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under the Equality Act 2010. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes.
16	records of teams, choirs, clubs and societies, plays and performances, of participation in events and sporting	you.	To allow the College's cultural life to function and flourish, and in order to maintain a record of College life, which may be relevant to you individually (for example if you later request a reference from us), and which is also part of the College's own archive record of what its members have achieved over time.	Records will be retained within College archives permanently.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms.	The College has a legitimate interest in maintaining a record of its cultural life, including for researchers and future students.
17	Meal bookings and attendance.	We obtain this data from you.	So that we may provide catering services to students and invoice them correctly for the services provided.	For 3 months after the end of the academic year when you cease to be a registered student.	Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you.
18	Records generated for legal or statutory compliance purposes that contain names and/or associated personal data. For example, copies of data supplied pursuant to requests made under data protection and/or freedom of information legislation, records made to comply with safeguarding, health and safety or counter-terrorism legislation, in connection with legal advice or claims, or to comply with auditors' requirements.	about you.	both in the interests of good administration and also to meet legal and regulatory requirements.	These records will be retained for a period of 6 years from the date generated for compliance purposes unless there is compelling justification for the data to be retained for a longer period (for example in connection with legal advice, or in relation to auditing obligations).	Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation.		under the UK Data Protection Act 2018.	College is exercising functions conferred under legislation and/or	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data	Where it processes special category data for these purposes, the College is exercising functions conferred under legislation and/or complying with regulatory requirements. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely the requirement for the College to comply with its statutory and legal obligations.
19	Passport records for overseas trips and events.	We obtain this data from you.	Where the College organises an event abroad (for example a College Choir event).	For 3 months after the date on which you return from the overseas event/trip.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms.	The College has a legitimate interest in arranging cultural events abroad.	Explicit consent.

20	Information and copies of records confirming your	We obtain this data from		For 6 years after the end of the academic year you	Processing is necessary for performance	The College, its students and the University have a entitlement to study in the UK, including records of your			cease to be a registered student.	of our contract with you.	legitimate interest in the Colleges being able to			1
	confirmation of acceptance for studies, passport, student				· ·	provide information to the University in order to			1 visa and/or biometric residence permit, attendance	you.			Processing is necessary for compliance	enable it to comply with immigration law obligations.			1 records. We also have access to the University's system				with a legal obligation.				1 that shows whether you have the right to work in the UK.					In the case of right to work information, the			1
						processing is necessary for the College to comply			1 of our or someone else's legitimate	with the requirements of UK Visas and Immigration			1
					interests, except where overridden by	under immigration law.			1
					your data protection rights and				1
					freedoms.				1
									1
									1
									1 1
									ı
									ı
									ı
									1 1
									ı
									ı
1				1	1	1			1
21	We may assist students making visa applications before	We obtain this data from	Overseas students need visas in order to attend	For 6 years after the end of the academic year you	Processing is necessary for performance		Explicit consent.
	they arrive, and making visa extensions when they are on		university.	cease to be a registered student.	of our contract with you.	1	1		1 the course. This involves us taking copies of passports and		,		1
		about you.		1	Processing is necessary for compliance	1			1
	University so that it has records of students' entitlement			1	with a legal obligation.	1			(L to study. We also provide the University with students'			1	1
	name, date of birth, passport number, course, fees paid &			1	Processing is necessary for the purposes
	due for it to share this information with the Home			1	of our or someone else's legitimate
	Office/UK Visas and Immigration as part of its reporting			1	interests, except where overridden by	1 obligations under immigration law.			1	your dat	1
				1	1	1
22	Emergency contact details.	We obtain this data from		For 6 years after the end of the academic year when	Processing is necessary for the purposes
		you.	the event of an emergency.	you cease to be a registered student.	of our or someone else's legitimate	interest in the College being able to contact			1
					interests, except where overridden by	someone you nominate for emergency situations.			1
					your data protection rights and				1
					freedoms.				1
									1
									1
									1
									1
				I .
	Contextual admissions information for undergraduate		The role of contextual admissions data is explained	Permanently.	Processing is necessary for the purposes
	admissions (relating to information about your school		more fully on the University's website, but is taken		of our or someone else's legitimate	people from a range of backgrounds have the more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite	Please note that if you participated in an outreach	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by
	admissions (relating to information about your school		more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College.
	admissions (relating to information about your school		more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required
	admissions (relating to information about your school		more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergra	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms.	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for
	admissions (relating to information about your school		more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the
	admissions (relating to information about your school		more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergra	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms.	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate
	admissions (relating to information about your school		more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the
	admissions (relating to information about your school		more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate
	admissions (relating to information about your school		more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate
	admissions (relating to information about your school		more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate
	admissions (relating to information about your school		more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate
	admissions (relating to information about your school		more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate
	admissions (relating to information about your school		more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate
	admissions (relating to information about your school		more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate
	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background).	the University of Oxford.	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssl=1	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation.	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access, Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process.
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background).	the University of Oxford.	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssl=1	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details	the University of Oxford. We obtain this data from you.	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssl=1	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation.	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	the University of Oxford. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssl=1	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you.	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access, Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course.
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	the University of Oxford. We obtain this data from you.	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssl=1	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access, Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course.
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	the University of Oxford. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssl=1	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access, Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course.
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	the University of Oxford. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssl=1	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access, Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course.
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	the University of Oxford. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssl=1	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access, Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course.
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	the University of Oxford. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssl=1	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access, Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course.
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	the University of Oxford. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssl=1	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access, Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course.
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	the University of Oxford. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssl=1	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access, Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course.
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	the University of Oxford. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssl=1	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access, Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course.
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	the University of Oxford. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssl=1	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access, Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course.
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	the University of Oxford. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssl=1	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access, Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course.
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	the University of Oxford. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssl=1	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access, Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course.
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	the University of Oxford. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssl=1	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access, Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course.
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	the University of Oxford. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssi=1 So that we are able to deliver your course and can take account of your circumstances when we deliver it.	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems.	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course.
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	We obtain this data from you. We generate this data about you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssl=1 So that we are able to deliver your course and can take account of your circumstances when we deliver it. Where you are a student member of a College	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems.	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms.	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course.
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	We obtain this data from you. We generate this data about you.	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssl=1 So that we are able to deliver your course and can take account of your circumstances when we deliver it. Where you are a student member of a College committee, we may record your attendance and	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems. A permanent record will be retained in the College archive where your attendance and comments are	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate of the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms.	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course. The College has a legitimate interest in having student representatives on certain committees, and
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	We obtain this data from you. We generate this data about you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssi=1 So that we are able to deliver your course and can take account of your circumstances when we deliver it. Where you are a student member of a College committee, we may record your attendance and details of your involvement in the meeting minutes	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems.	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where voerridden by	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course. The College has a legitimate interest in having student representatives on certain committees, and it is necessary to process your data for those
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	We obtain this data from you. We generate this data about you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssl=1 So that we are able to deliver your course and can take account of your circumstances when we deliver it. Where you are a student member of a College committee, we may record your attendance and	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems. A permanent record will be retained in the College archive where your attendance and comments are recorded in committee mintutes.	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course. The College has a legitimate interest in having student representatives on certain committees, and
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	We obtain this data from you. We generate this data about you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssi=1 So that we are able to deliver your course and can take account of your circumstances when we deliver it. Where you are a student member of a College committee, we may record your attendance and details of your involvement in the meeting minutes	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems. A permanent record will be retained in the College archive where your attendance and comments are recorded in committee mintutes. Other records will be held for 6 years after the end of	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where voerridden by	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course. The College has a legitimate interest in having student representatives on certain committees, and it is necessary to process your data for those
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	We obtain this data from you. We generate this data about you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssi=1 So that we are able to deliver your course and can take account of your circumstances when we deliver it. Where you are a student member of a College committee, we may record your attendance and details of your involvement in the meeting minutes	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems. A permanent record will be retained in the College archive where your attendance and comments are recorded in committee mintutes. Other records will be held for 6 years after the end of the academic year when you cease to be a registered	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course. The College has a legitimate interest in having student representatives on certain committees, and it is necessary to process your data for those
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	We obtain this data from you. We generate this data about you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssi=1 So that we are able to deliver your course and can take account of your circumstances when we deliver it. Where you are a student member of a College committee, we may record your attendance and details of your involvement in the meeting minutes	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems. A permanent record will be retained in the College archive where your attendance and comments are recorded in committee mintutes. Other records will be held for 6 years after the end of	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course. The College has a legitimate interest in having student representatives on certain committees, and it is necessary to process your data for those
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	We obtain this data from you. We generate this data about you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssi=1 So that we are able to deliver your course and can take account of your circumstances when we deliver it. Where you are a student member of a College committee, we may record your attendance and details of your involvement in the meeting minutes	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems. A permanent record will be retained in the College archive where your attendance and comments are recorded in committee mintutes. Other records will be held for 6 years after the end of the academic year when you cease to be a registered	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course. The College has a legitimate interest in having student representatives on certain committees, and it is necessary to process your data for those
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	We obtain this data from you. We generate this data about you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssi=1 So that we are able to deliver your course and can take account of your circumstances when we deliver it. Where you are a student member of a College committee, we may record your attendance and details of your involvement in the meeting minutes	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems. A permanent record will be retained in the College archive where your attendance and comments are recorded in committee mintutes. Other records will be held for 6 years after the end of the academic year when you cease to be a registered	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course. The College has a legitimate interest in having student representatives on certain committees, and it is necessary to process your data for those
24	admissions (relating to information about your school performance, postcode and care background). Information about your contractual terms and conditions, personal tutor, university card number, contact details and any carer responsibilities that you tell us about.	We obtain this data from you. We generate this data about you. We generate this data	more fully on the University's website, but is taken into account when deciding whether to invite applicants for interview (in addition to candidates who have met the usual departmental admissions criteria): https://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/applying-to-oxford/decisions/contextual-data?wssi=1 So that we are able to deliver your course and can take account of your circumstances when we deliver it. Where you are a student member of a College committee, we may record your attendance and details of your involvement in the meeting minutes	Please note that if you participated in an outreach programme, such data may also be held on the Higher Education Achievement Tracker, operated by the University. An explanation of what is held on HEAT and for how long it is retained on that system is available here: www.heat.ac.uk Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems. A permanent record will be retained in the College archive where your attendance and comments are recorded in committee mintutes. Other records will be held for 6 years after the end of the academic year when you cease to be a registered	of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation. Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	people from a range of backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the College. Under relevant legislation the University is required to adhere to the agreement it has with the Office for Fair Access / Office for Students, which includes the use of contextual data in the undergraduate admissions process. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to take account of relevant circumstances when providing your course. The College has a legitimate interest in having student representatives on certain committees, and it is necessary to process your data for those

26	Applications for and decisions about financial support, for	We obtain this data from	In order to make decisions about financial support	Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems.	Processing is necessary for the purposes	The College has a legitimate interest in receiving,
20	example scholarships, bursaries and hardship funds. This		and to ensure that the College is encouraging and	macinically, but deleted from the systems.	of our or someone else's legitimate	considering and making decisions about financial supporting participation by talented people from all		interests, except where overridden by	support in the interests of its students.
			backgrounds.		your data protection rights and
		We may receive decisions			freedoms.
		from third parties that provide financial support.			Processing is necessary for performance of a task in the public interest.
27		We obtain this data from	In order to provide and operate degree ceremonies.		Processing is necessary for performance catering requirements, names of your guests.	you.		date on which the ceremony took place.	of our contract with you.
		We generate this data about you.
							1
28	Records concerning nominations and decisions to confer	We obtain this data from	In order to decide who is to receive scholarships	Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems.	Processing is necessary for the nurrocco.	The College has a legitimate interest in making	1
1	prizes, scholarships and awards, where third party donors		awards or prizes.		of our or someone else's legitimate	awards and awarding scholarships and prizes to	1
1	are not involved.	We generate this data	I so prizes		interests, except where overridden by	students, and in fulfilling the wishes of its	1
Ī		about you.			your data protection rights and	benefactors.	1
Ī		,			freedoms.		1
Ī							1
				16 11 11 11 11 11			1
29	Records concerning nominations and decisions to confer	We obtain this data from		Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems.	We will only share your information with		1
1	prizes, scholarships and awards from third party donors.	you.	awards or prizes.		such a donor with your consent.		1
Ī		We generate this data					1
		about you.
		We receive this information from third party donors.
		party donors.
							1
20	Student debter records and records of debte records	Wa ganarata this data	In order to consider and take appropriate action	Pocords of outstanding naumonts will be retained with	Processing is necessary for necessary	The College has a legitimate interest in heir
30				Records of outstanding payments will be retained until they are paid in full (or a final decision is made in	of our contract with you.
	records of decisions we take about debts.	about you.		relation to recovery of the debt). Information will	or our contract with you.	collect detbs owed by students and former students.	1
				otherwise be retained for 6 years from the date on	Processing is necessary for the purposes		I
1				which you cease to be a registered student of the	of our or someone else's legitimate		1
				College.	interests, except where overridden by		1
Ī			disciplinary options and/or debt recovery action.	· -	your data protection rights and		1
Ī					freedoms.		1
Ī					I		1
Ī							1
1					I		1
Ī							1
Ī							1
Ī					I		1
Ī							1
Ī					I		1
31	Library access and book records, overdue book records,	We generate this data	To operate College library facilities	These records will be retained for a period of one year	Processing is necessary for performance	The College has a legitimate interest in being able to
31		about you.	To operate conege notary facilities.	from the date of closure of your library account.	of our contract with you.	operate its library and collect fines in accordance	1
	records of horary cards and horary filles.	assat you.			5. 557 contract with you.	with its regulations and procedures.	I
1					Processing is necessary for the purposes		1
					of our or someone else's legitimate		1
Ī					interests, except where overridden by		1
					your data protection rights and		1
					freedoms.		I
1					I		1
							1
1					I		1
							1
1					I		1
							1
			İ		1	i	1
	1

32	Records of any decisions that you tell us about regarding	We obtain this data from	In order to consider and make decisions about your	Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems.	Processing is necessary for performance	The College has a legitimate interest in being able to your course, such as options you wish to take, or if you	you.	requests.	1	of our contract with you.	make decisions about your requests in accordance				1
	decide to change or withdraw from your course, intermit	We generate this data				with its regulations and procedures.
	or suspend your studies. Records of any decisions we	about you.			Processing is necessary for the purposes make about your wishes, such as whether to allow you to				of our or someone else's legitimate take options, change your course or suspend your studies.				interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and
					freedoms.
33	Welfare records, including confidential records about	We obtain this data from	In order to provide support and counselling services	For 6 years after the end of the academic year when	Processing is necessary for the purposes	The College and its students have a legitimate	Explicit consent.
	requests for support and counselling, and of support and	vou.	to our students.	you cease to be a registered student.	of our or someone else's legitimate	interest in providing and having access to support	Expirer consent.
	counselling provided.	We generate this data		,	interests, except where overridden by	and counselling services.
		about you.			your data protection rights and
					freedoms.
34	Records of students who have opted out of public display	We obtain this data from	In order to comply with student requests.	For 3 months after the end of the academic year when	Processing is necessary for performance of their results/scholarships/awards/prizes.	you.		you cease to be a registered student.	of our contract with you.
					Processing is necessary for compliance
			1		with a legal obligation.
			1		1					1
			1
35	Mailing lists informing you about events and other	We generate this data	To enable students to participate in College events.	Your email contact data will be removed from mailing	Processing is necessary for the purposes	The College and its students have a legitimate information about the College and University.	about you.		lists within three months of the date on which you	of our or someone else's legitimate	interest that students are notified of information cease to be a registered student at the College.	interests, except where overridden by	about the College and University (for example, your data protection rights and	events).
			1		freedoms.					1
36	Student information that appears in marketing and		To promote the College to potential applicants.	Permanently.	You have given your consent to the outreach materials, such as photographs of students and	you.			processing for one or more specific quotations about their experience, records of any			Student information may be transferred to College	purposes.
	students that participate in outreach activity.			archives for purposes in the public interest, or for historical research purposes as a record of College life.
37	Research student records, including details of your	We obtain this data from	In order to monitor your progress and make	Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems.	Processing is necessary for performance
37	Research student records, including details of your supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College	We obtain this data from the University of Oxford.	In order to monitor your progress and make decisions about it.	Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems.	Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you.
37				Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems.
37	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College	the University of Oxford.		Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems.
37	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and	the University of Oxford. We generate this data		Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems.
37	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about	the University of Oxford. We generate this data		Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems.
37	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about	the University of Oxford. We generate this data		Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems.
37	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about	the University of Oxford. We generate this data		Indefinetly, but deleted from 'live' systems.
37	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress.	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you.	decisions about it.		of our contract with you.
37	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or	the University of Oxford. We generate this data	decisions about it.	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes		Processing is necessary	Where the College processes special category data for these numbers the processing is necessary for the prevention of a	The processing meets a condition in Part 2 of	Where the College processes special category data for these purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a
37	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress.	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you.	decisions about it.	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate	College nurse available to provide basic medical	for health purposes under	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a	condition in Part 2 of	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a
37	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you.	decisions about it.	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by			purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data
37	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	decisions about it.	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate	College nurse available to provide basic medical	for health purposes under the Data Protection Act	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The
37	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	decisions about it.	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by	College nurse available to provide basic medical	for health purposes under the Data Protection Act	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest,	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable
37	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	decisions about it.	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by	College nurse available to provide basic medical	for health purposes under the Data Protection Act	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory
37	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	decisions about it.	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by	College nurse available to provide basic medical	for health purposes under the Data Protection Act	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations.
37	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	decisions about it.	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by	College nurse available to provide basic medical	for health purposes under the Data Protection Act	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations.	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective
37	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	decisions about it.	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by	College nurse available to provide basic medical	for health purposes under the Data Protection Act	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations.
37	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	decisions about it.	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by	College nurse available to provide basic medical	for health purposes under the Data Protection Act	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations.	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function.
37	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	decisions about it.	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by	College nurse available to provide basic medical	for health purposes under the Data Protection Act	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective
37	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	decisions about it.	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by	College nurse available to provide basic medical	for health purposes under the Data Protection Act	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function.	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
37	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	decisions about it.	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by	of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by	College nurse available to provide basic medical	for health purposes under the Data Protection Act	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse.	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	decisions about it.	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms.	College nurse available to provide basic medical advice and treatment to its students.	for health purposes under the Data Protection Act 1988.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes.	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes.
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	decisions about it. In order to provide references, and so that we have a	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms.	College nurse available to provide basic medical advice and treatment to its students. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to	for health purposes under the Data Protection Act 1988. Processing is necessary	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your contract with us, including data that we hold permenently	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate	College nurse available to provide basic medical advice and treatment to its students. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former	for health purposes under the Data Protection Act 1988. Processing is necessary for the establishment,	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018. Processing is necessary for the establishment,	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and research purposes and/or for the purposes of legal	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by	College nurse available to provide basic medical advice and treatment to its students. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide information to	for health purposes under the Data Protection Act 1988. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your contract with us, including data that we hold permenently	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	College nurse available to provide basic medical advice and treatment to its students. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former	for health purposes under the Data Protection Act 1988. Processing is necessary for the establishment,	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018. Processing is necessary for the establishment,	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your contract with us, including data that we hold permenently	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and research purposes and/or for the purposes of legal	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by	College nurse available to provide basic medical advice and treatment to its students. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide information to regulators, and/or defend or make legal claims.	for health purposes under the Data Protection Act 1988. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history.	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history.
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your contract with us, including data that we hold permenently	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and research purposes and/or for the purposes of legal	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide information to regulators, and/or defend or make legal claims. The College also has a legitimate interest in	for health purposes under the Data Protection Act 1988. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your contract with us, including data that we hold permenently	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and research purposes and/or for the purposes of legal	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	College nurse available to provide basic medical advice and treatment to its students. The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide information to regulators, and/or defend or make legal claims.	For health purposes under the Data Protection Act 1988. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for archiving in the public	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history.	condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history.
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your contract with us, including data that we hold permenently	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and research purposes and/or for the purposes of legal	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide information to regulators, and/or defend or make legal claims. The College also has a legitimate interest in maintaining an archive of its activities as part of a	for health purposes under the Data Protection Act 1988. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for archiving in the public interest, and/or for	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your contract with us, including data that we hold permenently	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and research purposes and/or for the purposes of legal	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide information to regulators, and/or defend or make legal claims. The College also has a legitimate interest in maintaining an archive of its activities as part of a long established university with a strong identity,	for health purposes under the Data Protection Act 1988. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for archiving in the public interest, and/or for	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your contract with us, including data that we hold permenently	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and research purposes and/or for the purposes of legal	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide information to regulators, and/or defend or make legal claims. The College also has a legitimate interest in maintaining an archive of its activities as part of a long established university with a strong identity, history and research tradition, and in maintaining	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for archiving in the public interest, and/or for historical research purposes.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your contract with us, including data that we hold permenently	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and research purposes and/or for the purposes of legal	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide information to regulators, and/or defend or make legal claims. The College also has a legitimate interest in maintaining an archive of its activities as part of a long established university with a strong identity, history and research tradition, and in maintaining	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for archiving in the public interest, and/or for historical research purposes.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your contract with us, including data that we hold permenently	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and research purposes and/or for the purposes of legal	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide information to regulators, and/or defend or make legal claims. The College also has a legitimate interest in maintaining an archive of its activities as part of a long established university with a strong identity, history and research tradition, and in maintaining	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for archiving in the public interest, and/or for historical research purposes.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the processing is necessary include the purposes of approved	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the processing is necessary include the purposes of approved medical
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your contract with us, including data that we hold permenently	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and research purposes and/or for the purposes of legal	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide information to regulators, and/or defend or make legal claims. The College also has a legitimate interest in maintaining an archive of its activities as part of a long established university with a strong identity, history and research tradition, and in maintaining	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for archiving in the public interest, and/or for historical research purposes.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your contract with us, including data that we hold permenently	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and research purposes and/or for the purposes of legal	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide information to regulators, and/or defend or make legal claims. The College also has a legitimate interest in maintaining an archive of its activities as part of a long established university with a strong identity, history and research tradition, and in maintaining	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for archiving in the public interest, and/or for historical research purposes.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the processing is necessary include the purposes of approved	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the processing is necessary include the purposes of approved medical
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your contract with us, including data that we hold permenently	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and research purposes and/or for the purposes of legal	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide information to regulators, and/or defend or make legal claims. The College also has a legitimate interest in maintaining an archive of its activities as part of a long established university with a strong identity, history and research tradition, and in maintaining	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for archiving in the public interest, and/or for historical research purposes.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the processing is necessary include the purposes of approved	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the processing is necessary include the purposes of approved medical
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your contract with us, including data that we hold permenently	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and research purposes and/or for the purposes of legal	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide information to regulators, and/or defend or make legal claims. The College also has a legitimate interest in maintaining an archive of its activities as part of a long established university with a strong identity, history and research tradition, and in maintaining	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for archiving in the public interest, and/or for historical research purposes.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the processing is necessary include the purposes of approved	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the processing is necessary include the purposes of approved medical
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your contract with us, including data that we hold permenently	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and research purposes and/or for the purposes of legal	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide information to regulators, and/or defend or make legal claims. The College also has a legitimate interest in maintaining an archive of its activities as part of a long established university with a strong identity, history and research tradition, and in maintaining	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for archiving in the public interest, and/or for historical research purposes.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the processing is necessary include the purposes of approved	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the processing is necessary include the purposes of approved medical
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your contract with us, including data that we hold permenently	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and research purposes and/or for the purposes of legal	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide information to regulators, and/or defend or make legal claims. The College also has a legitimate interest in maintaining an archive of its activities as part of a long established university with a strong identity, history and research tradition, and in maintaining	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for archiving in the public interest, and/or for historical research purposes.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the processing is necessary include the purposes of approved	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the processing is necessary include the purposes of approved medical
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your contract with us, including data that we hold permenently	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and research purposes and/or for the purposes of legal	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide information to regulators, and/or defend or make legal claims. The College also has a legitimate interest in maintaining an archive of its activities as part of a long established university with a strong identity, history and research tradition, and in maintaining	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for archiving in the public interest, and/or for historical research purposes.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the processing is necessary include the purposes of approved	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the processing is necessary include the purposes of approved medical
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your contract with us, including data that we hold permenently	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and research purposes and/or for the purposes of legal	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide information to regulators, and/or defend or make legal claims. The College also has a legitimate interest in maintaining an archive of its activities as part of a long established university with a strong identity, history and research tradition, and in maintaining	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for archiving in the public interest, and/or for historical research purposes.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the processing is necessary include the purposes of approved	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the processing is necessary include the purposes of approved medical
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your contract with us, including data that we hold permenently	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and research purposes and/or for the purposes of legal	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide information to regulators, and/or defend or make legal claims. The College also has a legitimate interest in maintaining an archive of its activities as part of a long established university with a strong identity, history and research tradition, and in maintaining	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for archiving in the public interest, and/or for historical research purposes.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the processing is necessary include the purposes of approved	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the processing is necessary include the purposes of approved medical
38	supervisor, the supervision process, examiner, College advisor, thesis title, submission and viva details and outcomes, progress reports, records of meetings about your progress. Records of consultations and any medical treatment or advice given by the College nurse. Data listed in this table that we hold after the end of your contract with us, including data that we hold permenently	the University of Oxford. We generate this data about you. We obtain this data from you. We generate this data	In order to provide references, and so that we have a record if required by a regulator, for archiving and research purposes and/or for the purposes of legal	Medical treatment, advice and consultations form a part of your NHS Record. All records are managed by the NHS data retention policies.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and	The College has a legitimate interest in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide references to its students and former students, and in being able to provide information to regulators, and/or defend or make legal claims. The College also has a legitimate interest in maintaining an archive of its activities as part of a long established university with a strong identity, history and research tradition, and in maintaining	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Processing is necessary for archiving in the public interest, and/or for historical research purposes.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the processing is necessary include the purposes of approved	Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.	purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations. The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function. In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes. There is a public interest in the College maintaining its archive of College life for future generations, and in the context of the College being a College of a long-established University with a strong identity and history. The College is required to implement appropriate safeguards for individuals' rights and freedoms. The UK Data Protection Act provides safeguards by making specific provision preventing processing which is likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to a data subject; and/or which is carried out for the purposes of measures or decisions with respect to a particular data subject, unless the purposes for which the processing is necessary include the purposes of approved medical

40	Conducation Community April 10 to 10	Mrba-i- abi-	To excellence to etternal commence direction]	December is account for any	We have a legitimate interest in the retention of this 40	Graduation Ceremony Applications (including dietary	We obtain this information), related correspondence.	information from you.				data for a period following your graduation
		We generate this				ceremony, as it may be relevant to respond to information about you.			performance of a task carried out in the	queries or for administrative purposes.
				and appropriate provision made for you at future	public interest.
					Processing is necessary for the purposes
					of our or someone else's legitimate interests, expect where overridden by your data protection rights and
					freedoms.
41	References we provide.	We generate this data	Where we are asked to provide a reference for you.	Copies of references will be kept for six years from the	Processing is necessary for the purposes	The College, its students and the recipients of about you		date of provision of the reference. An entry noting that		references have a legitimate interest in providing
		,				and receiving references.
					your data protection rights and	• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •
					freedoms.
		I	1		l		l .		