Processing is necessary for health purposes under the Data Protection Act 1988.	Where the College processes special category data for these purposes, the processing is necessary for the prevention of a breach of its obligations under health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equality and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations.  The processing is also necessary for the exercise of a protective function.  In both cases, the processing must be carried out without consent so as not to prejudice those purposes.	The processing meets a condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018.
