

EXETER COLLEGE, OXFORD

Usher Cunningham Scholarship in History

The College seeks to elect an Usher Cunningham Scholar from among students who have an offer of admission to study for a DPhil degree in the Faculty of History at Oxford University.

Where a suitable candidate is identified, the Scholarship will be awarded in conjunction with an Oxford University Clarendon award, and together these awards will fund the Course Fees, and a grant to cover living expenses.

The successful candidate will:

- be an applicant to the University of Oxford for admission to a DPhil degree in the Faculty of History
- be a graduate of an Irish University who has been normally resident in Ireland for at least three of the five years before starting at the University of Oxford
- become a member of Exeter College and commit to remaining at Exeter College for the duration of their degree.

How to apply

There is no separate application process for this Scholarship; you simply need to apply for your graduate course by the relevant January deadline.

We will consider all eligible applicants to Oxford for this Scholarship, regardless of whether or not you state Exeter College as your preferred college on your graduate application form. If we offer you this Scholarship we will also offer you a place at Exeter College, which will take the place of any earlier college offer you may have.
